

MetRent -- Free Nationwide Real Estate Rental Listings

From California to Maine, MetRent allows anyone to easily advertise or find an available Family Home, Commercial Property, Vacation Property or a Roommate in any US State.

Sunnyvale, CA (PRWEB) May 9, 2006 -- MetRent is a free site. A free account includes the ability to use the MetRent MessageSystem, Add Listings, Compare Listings, Search Profile with Alerts, Online Documentation, Real Estate Calculators, Tips and a MetRent SaveList.

With a newly designed site, comprehensive search tools and a fresh perspective on the Internet real estate market, MetRent is changing the rental industry. Unlike craigslist, MetRent offers a user friendly interface with many features to help tenants and owners work together. Unlike Rent.com, MetRent offers an affordable service that reaches the same audience and is easier to use.

Revenue will be generated via non-intrusive advertising, custom services, website integration with a Custom Application Service Provider (ASP) Module and bulk listings. The non-intrusive ads that appear on the site are not flashy pop-ups and are continuously screened by MetRent Staff to prevent misleading or trick ads from appearing. MetRent Advertising

Users are not required to register in order to browse listings or contact owners. To use the other features of the site, users must register, for free. Here are some of the things that are capable when using MetRent: search, contact owners, list a room for rent, advertise a house, vacation and commercial property for rent and search for comparable rental prices. All of this with one account.

When using the site, rest assured that unless you put your contact information in the description field of the listing you are advertising, your email address and other contact information will be kept private. With the MetRent MessageSystem a user can send an owner a message without ever knowing the owners contact information. The owner has the option to use the MessageSystem to remain anonymous or contact the possible tenant any other way.

For more information on rentals in and around the United States, please visit MetRent or call 408-730-0960.
